NON-LEGAL WORK EXPERIENCE:

Prior to law school, I was variously employed in part-time, seasonal and volunteer positions: factory worker, journalist, poetry editor, international debating tournament judge, restaurant waiter, events organizer, theatre usher, stage manager, and French language acting coach.

PRACTICE AREAS IN THE LAST 5 YEARS:

A wide range of areas of civil litigation, including: insurance litigation involving personal injury, property damage, and coverage disputes; commercial law, such as shareholder, fiduciary and corporate disputes, class actions, real estate disputes and private international law; professional negligence matters involving medicine, law, dentistry, engineering and architecture. Extensive use of Alternative Dispute Resolution including mediation, arbitration and drafting of custom arbitration agreements.

I have appeared as counsel in approximately forty civil trials and one criminal trial, as well as about twenty appeals. I have also appeared in hundreds of other appearances such as applications, arbitrations, motions, examinations for discovery and cross-examinations. Many of the decisions arising from these matters have been reported by both the traditional and electronic services. A list of reported decisions appears in Appendix "A" to this CV.
